Where: Double Tree Hotel, Hyannis
287 Iyannough Road (One mile south of Barnstable Airport)
Free parking

When: Fri, 10/25/24 from 1:00 to 3:00

What: BC Tales and Tail Gate
featuring Reid Oslin '68, author Tales from the Boston College Sideline
Reid Oslin '68 served as Boston College's Associate Athletics Director for Media Relations from 1974 through 1997 - giving him a "front-row seat" to some of the most exciting events in Eagles' sports history, including BC's famous Cotton Bowl championship and Doug Flutie's Heisman Trophy season in 1984.
After 24 years in athletics, Reid moved up to the University's Office of Public Affairs where he was senior media relations officer until he retired in 2012. During that time, he authored four books on the history of BC sports - three of them on football and one on hockey.
Reid and his wife Susan currently live in West Dennis and are active members of the BC Club of Cape Cod.
